Community Psychological Resources is a group of licensed Norfolk clinical psychologists and social workers that provide a wide range of diagnostic and psychotherapeutic services designed to assist those facing a personal challenge.

Comprehensive mental health services for children, adolescents and adults are provided. Assessments, treatment and mental health interventions are provided. Specialized services include domestic violence, child abuse/neglect, problems of young children and chronic illness such as diabetes, COPD, heart disease, cancer, autoimmune diseases, HIV/AIDS, cerebral palsy, etc.

Services also include geriatric assessment, cognitive assessment, screening for elder abuse and testing for depression, memory loss and anxiety.
