Hospice of Virginia in Richmond provides compassionate and comprehensive palliative and hospice care to persons with life-limiting illnesses who reside in Richmond and the surrounding counties. The focus is to provide physical, emotional, and spiritual support to our patients within the context of their identified families in a manner that maximizes their comfort and autonomy while conserving resources. Staff believes in the dignity of the individual, the sanctity of the family, and the beauty of the human spirit.

Hospice services are available in homes, nursing homes, and assisted living facilities.
