The Peninsula Health Department, part of the Hampton-Peninsula Health District, serves residents of Newport News and Poquoson. Services include

- District Administration
- Clinic
- Immunizations
- Communicable Disease Control
- Community Health Nursing
- Environmental Health
- Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Clinic
- Vital Records

The health department no longer provides patient care in the home.

Health care services are provided on a sliding scale according to the ability to pay. Many services are provided free of charge. For citizens who are unable to pay, eligibility for services must be determined annually. Clients need to bring proof of income to the eligibility office in the Health Department clinic where they wish to be seen. Please visit the website to learn more.
