Bradley Free Clinic provides prescription medication to eligible patients and others who meet eligibility guidelines. Each patient is given individual consideration.

Medications are provided for patients of the Clinic. Patients must bring a written prescription to the Clinic and please note that no medication is given out from a label.

No pain medication or narcotics are provided by the Clinic. The pharmacy does not accept prescriptions phoned in by your physician or another pharmacy.

The Clinic is intended to help those who are making a sincere effort to help themselves and their families. Bradley Free Clinic is supported by private donations, foundations and grants, churches and civic organizations, Roanoke Valley Horse Show, and Carilion Community Health Fund.
