The Department of Social Services offers short-term rental and mortgage assistance to households experiencing an unforeseen financial crisis. The Homeless Intervention Program (HIP) is a state-funded program used to assist eligible households. Interest-free loans are provided for temporary rental, mortgage and security deposit payments for those who meet the program criteria and have income at 80 percent of area median income or lower. This program is open to residents of Prince William County, Manassas City and Manassas Park. Call 703-792-7500 to request an application.

All mortgage assistance applicants must first contact Marjorie Leon at Virginia Cooperative Extension at 703-792-4713. For all mortgage loans given, Prince William County will place a lien against the property.

{Languages: Clients should bring an interpreter.}
