Northern Virginia Community College, Woodbridge campus, provides educational and career counseling for veterans and other eligible family members. The Financial Aid Officer will work with veterans to apply for financial aid. Military members, veterans and their families are encouraged to seek support and assistance through their respective Office of Veteran Advisors on campus. This service includes Virginia war orphans, who are entitled to benefits under the GI bill. Most of the degree curricula of the college have been approved by the Veterans Administration. Visit Veterans Education for more information.
