Wesley Agape House (the House) is residential style with 12 private one and two bedroom apartments and a common lounge area. The goal of the House is to provide accessible, physically amenable housing, as well as coordinated supportive services to the elderly and those with a disability.

Residents are able to focus on optimizing their health and well-being. Independent living is facilitated by a Supportive Housing Coordinator who works on site, linking residents with services, providing counseling and planning educational and recreational activities.
