Kendal at Lexington offers Webster Center, a residential and assisted living care facility. Assistance is provided to adults who require assistance with at least two activities of daily living. Each assisted living studio residence offers a kitchenette and private bath. Some apartments have patios or balconies. Each person is encouraged to decorate his or her apartment to suit individual tastes. The capacity is 20 residents.

Residents who have entered into a Residence and Care Agreement with Kendal at Lexington always have priority access to Webster Center. On occasion, residency in Webster Center can be offered to individuals from outside of the Kendal community on a per diem basis.
