Seniors meet at the Ivanhoe Fire Department for a nutritious meal. This is a cooperative program. Participants enjoy fellowship, informational programs, crafts, recreation, nutritious meals, shopping outings and other activities. Transportation assistance may be available.

The Center's mission is to create opportunities for healthy aging by offering social engagement, physical well-being, civic involvement, creativity, and lifelong learning.

The Center is open on Wednesdays 9 am until 1 pm with a nutrition program and District Three's activities. Please call for more details.
