Timothy (Tim) Sweeney is a licensed social work who provides psychotherapy for adults and couples. Individual treatment can assist with depression, anxiety, self-esteem, assertiveness, relationships, stage of life, work stress and adult ADHD. Couples therapy can help such areas as money, emotional availability, parenting, intimacy, in-laws, faith and more.

He specializes in helping the parents of special needs children renew their relationships to have strong, healthy marriages while providing their special needs child/children the love and attention they deserved.
