Sean Slevin LPC LMFT is a licensed professional counselor and marriage and family therapist at Transitions Counseling. He offers therapy tailored to the client's personality from a Christian perspective and with a neurobiological understanding. Clients from all faith and non-faith backgrounds are welcome. The discussion of spiritual topics is always at the discretion of each client.

Counseling goals include:

- Working on the roots of struggles (as opposed to just addressing surface symptoms);
- Making changes that will last long term;
- Gaining a better understanding of the natural cycles of learning and growing;
- Learning how to take more ownership of the growth journey.
