The Healing Place offers a long-term peer-driven residential recovery program for individuals in the Greater Richmond community. Men and women who are suffering from substance use disorder find pathways to sobriety, employment, and spiritual wellness. This program includes a workforce development program, a transitional sober living community, and an active Alumni Association to support lifelong sobriety.

To contact the men's recovery program, call Justin Woods, the Healing Place for Men Program Manager at (804) 887-1580 or jwoods@caritasva.org.

For the women's recovery program, contact Anna Murphy, The Healing Place for Women Program Manager at 804-401-8671
