

Family to Family Program

Age Requirements

18 and over

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

The service area covers Alexandria and certain zip codes in Fairfax County and Arlington County.

Family

Yes

Intake Contact Email

family@opmh.org

Intake Process

Call for information. Referrals to this program will be made by social services or another agency. Self-referrals are not accepted.

Provider Refer

Yes

Report Problems

Call the Agency

Self Refer

Yes

Old Presbyterian Meeting House

<http://www.opmh.org/>

<https://opmh.org/involved/partnerships/>

Main

(703) 549-6670

323 S. Fairfax Street

22314 VA

United States

Fee Structure

No Fee

Languages Spoken

English

Old Presbyterian Meeting House offers missions addressing homelessness, affordable housing, and poverty and hunger. One of those missions is the Family to Family Program. This program may be able to assist individuals or families with emergency financial assistance for a variety of reasons, including rent, utility bills, medical care and prescriptions, and job searches. Help is available every 4 months, as long as funds are available. There is a maximum on the amount of assistance provided.

Call or email for more information.

Service Area(s)

Alexandria City

Email

opmh@opmh.org