Region Ten Community Services Board (RTCBSB) offers Sponsored Residential Services to adults with developmental disabilities. Sponsored Residential Services provides continuous (up to 24 hours per day) support. Up to two individuals live in the home of a professional service provider and become an integrated part of the family. The sponsored providers provide most of the needed services. They may also hire other trained and certified workers to assist them with providing support. In this service, the goal is to help each individual with developmental disabilities find a mutual match with a sponsor provider and to live the life they desire in the community. This services offers personalized supports and provides a safe environment that encourages and protects individuals' independence, dignity, and personal choice.
