Ann Mason, previously known as Everette Mason Home Care, offers personal care to seniors and individuals with disabilities. Caregivers who are screened and trained offer assistance with activities of daily living, including assistance with bathing, hygiene, toileting, feeding, ambulation and more. Light housekeeping, home maintenance and laundry are also services that can be provided.

Personal care and companion services allow individuals to remain in their home. Private duty nursing is available.

Other services include companion care, respite care and Consumer Directed to the Elderly and Disabled.
