The Chesapeake provides a continuing care retirement community (a life care community or CCRC) that offers residential and independent living. The Chesapeake offers nursing care to residents as part of its continuum of care services. As health circumstances change, residents move between their cottage or apartment residences, Assisted Living, and Licensed Nursing Care. Short-term nursing care may be allowed to community residents if space is available.

Moving to The Chesapeake gives you a commitment of lifetime residency and prepaid health care services when you need them. As health circumstances change, residents move between their cottage or apartment residences, assisted living, and licensed nursing care. They always remain in the familiar, comfortable surroundings of The Chesapeake, close to friends, neighbors, and family whom they know and trust. Non-ambulatory residents are welcome.

The Chesapeake is owned by LifeSpire of Virginia.
