Helping Heroes Home is an initiative of Cell Phones for Soldiers. Helping Heroes Home accepts financial assistance requests from all Veterans who served in past conflicts. Each request will be reviewed on a case by case basis.

The total amount of assistance will vary. On average, the program seeks to serve needs less than $500.

Eligible expenses include home phone service, cell phone service, cell phone purchase, internet service, technology driven communication tools and non communications emergency financial assistance.

Emergency funding may be granted for one of the following reasons:

- Family needs due to deployment
- Military related illness or injury
- Natural disaster
- Family emergency affecting the day to day livelihood of the veteran Application can be submitted online. Funds will be paid directly to the creditor.
