Outpatient Services provides intake, and mental health and substance abuse counseling and assessment services. The facility offers traditional groups are for individuals who need a psycho-educational treatment modality. These adults have experienced legal, social, relational or employment-related issues, indicating that their substance use may be becoming problematic or they have been diagnosed with a substance abuse disorder (alcohol or marijuana only). The treatment lasts eight to twelve weeks. Groups meet at Olney Road once a week for 90 minutes.

Random urine drug screens are given. A complete list of the groups is available on the website.
