At Virginia Beach Community Services Board, Projects for Assistance in Transition from Homelessness (PATH) provides services to individuals with serious behavioral health disorders (SMI), including those with co-occurring substance use disorders, who are experiencing homelessness or are at imminent risk of becoming homeless.

PATH refers individuals to behavioral health, substance use, primary health services and relevant housing services such as the Virginia Beach Connection Point.

PATH provides training to the teams working in shelters, health clinics and to other organizations where people who are homeless receive services. PATH also provides presentations to any organization desiring more information on homelessness.
