World T.E.A.M. Sports offers Military Initiative to challenge the mind as well as the body brings together injured veterans and able-bodied climbers, skiers, hikers, mountaineers, cyclists and water sports enthusiasts on outdoor adventures worldwide.

These expeditions include a variety of outdoor sporting activities, including technical climbs of high mountain peaks, snow sports such as skiing and snowboarding, cycling events and water sports.

This ongoing program is a commitment to help injured military veterans break through perceived constraints to overcome emotional, physical and technical boundaries, and to realize their endeavors in life are possible. Participants include veterans from wars and conflicts from Korea through Vietnam, the Gulf War and Afghanistan and Iraq.

Please call for information about the program and activities.
