Richmond Behavioral Health Authority's (RBHA) Program of Assertive Community Treatment (PACT) team is a group of qualified behavioral health professionals whose mission is to partner with individuals to help them live successfully in the community. This intensive service team consists of a supervisor, case manager, substance abuse specialist, vocational specialist, clinician, peer specialist, nurse and a psychiatrist. PACT staff works seven days per week and are available after hours for crisis consultation.

The PACT team helps individuals identify goals that are aimed at recovery and success in the community. Services may include:

- Finding safe, affordable housing,
- Managing medications,
- Getting and maintaining employment,
- Making connections in the community,
- Scheduling and keeping medical and dental appointments,
- Meeting individuals in their home to conduct psychiatric and nursing visits,
- Teaching and assisting with independent living skills.
