Psycho-Social Rehabilitation programs provide group support and assistance to individuals with mental, behavioral or emotional illness that results in significant functional impairments in major life activities.

As a participant in the Psycho-Social Rehabilitation program, individuals are provided with training and support that focuses on strengthening natural supports, socialization, positive coping skills and independent living skills. The Psycho-Social Rehabilitation program places a heavy focus on mental health education; from everything from understanding an individual's diagnosis to understanding and educating on the purpose and effects of prescribed medication.
