5 Stars Home Care can provide respite care for family caregivers who need a muchneeded break.

Respite services are non-medical care. These services can range from a few hours a week to a week or more at one time. The amount of time required will depend on the family's needs.

Benefits of respite services include:

• The family can enjoy regular daily activities

- Reduces the amount of isolation family members feel
- Family members receive much-needed rest
- Learn life skills
- Learn coping skills
- Family members remain stable during a crisis
- Preserving the family unit
