Employees and volunteers at Caritas pick up, load, and sometimes deliver furniture and household items (Linens, bath, and kitchen items) to those individuals who qualify and are in need. Families who need this service include:

- Individuals and families moving out of homelessness

- Victims of natural disasters
- Women escaping domestic violence
- People with mental and physical disabilities including those suffering from a substance use disorder
- Elderly persons on limited incomes

For more information contact the Furniture Bank Program Manager at (804) 887-1591 or email smorris@caritasva.org

Donations are welcome. Please call for times and days furniture and household items can be donated. To schedule a pickup for the Furniture Bank, please complete our Furniture Donation Form.

Our administrative offices, CARITAS Works, Women's Emergency Shelter, The Healing Place for Women, CARITAS Recovery Residences, and the Furniture Bank are located at Stockton Street.
