Money Matters 101 is a five-part training series to help people with disabilities understand and manage money. Money Matters will help people understand what money is, how they can use it to pay for things they need, and how to decide what things are most important to pay for. This training will be perfect for someone with a disability who is learning how to live on their own and spend their own money.

ECNV offers this five-part training to help people with disabilities understand and manage money. Eligibility is open to FIS Waiver and DARS referrals as well as anyone interested in expanding their knowledge about money. Virtual classes will take place on Wednesdays from 4-5pm, April 2-30, 2025. Registration is required and closes March 20, 2025. Use our Online Registration Form to sign up today! Participants must be Northern Virginia residents.
