

Published on VirginiaNavigator (<https://virginiannavigator.org>)

APDA Virginia Parkinson's Conference

Date and Time

Saturday 3/2/2024 9:00am to 3:30pm

Event URL

Register Here

Event Region

Statewide

Event Type

Conference

Event Cost

$15.00

Event Description

American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA) Virginia Parkinson's Conference will be on Saturday, March 2, 2024, from 9 am until 3:30 pm at the College of Education at William & Mary. Keynote speaker will be Briana De Miranda, PhD, University of Alabama at Birmingham, AI, APDA Research Grant Award Recipient 2023-2024.

Topics include The role of environmental exposures in Parkinson's development and progression; Embracing Early Levodopa for Parkinson's; Resilience in Parkinson's Disease; Helpful home modifications for Parkinson's; Supporting the gut brain connection with a healthy diet; Advanced research and clinical trials VCU research.

If you have questions or would like recommendations about staying overnight, please call 757-495-3062

Event Image or Sponsor Logo

Image

